

KLOVE is my favorite radio station. I very rarely listen to another station. I also contribute every month to keep it on the air. It shares the Gospel with those who would not hear it in any other way. It is a constant that anyone of any age can go to for encouragement when everything else in life is always changing.